Please correct the
spelling if it is wrong

Dear Andy, Larry, Mark

Peace be upon who follow the guidance.

I beleif my medical condion is getting worse b/c when I first came here I would sleep on one blanket and use the other to cover me, and now I have the sleeping bag (which is also nothing, but better than none) and taking this medicine neurontin plus 550 mg of Tylone three times a day (the tylone is for the headach that neurontin caus as side effect)¹. So, I should be feeling better, but the tingling & back pain still exist. Those people here or others does not want to treat me. The doctor said the problem is very simple - he said that in the begining - you do not have much fat & you are sleeping, sitting on hard surface & you do not have a chair.

You know when you feel something is going to happen to you. This is what I feel with this tingling problem. So, please keep everything documented & do every step or request that you think will help us in the future, in case anything happen.

When Jung said I have refused medical treatment on several occasions which has led to exacerbation of my problem. How could that be and the medicines I am taking then & now are temperary.

I will talk to you about this more when I see you all if Allah will.

¹Which I have all day/night

Yours,

Ali
